

Nagambie Central

Nagambie Central is a neighbourhood shopping centre anchored by an IGA supermarket in addition to six specialty shops and an ATM. The trade area for Nagambie Central extends 20km from the centre drawing customers from across the Shire of Strathbogie region.

The Leading Choice

The centre is a single level, fully external shopping experience and represents the main convenience retail offer for the suburb of Nagambie. The centre offers its loyal customers and tourists to the region a high level of accessibility and convenience with on-grade, free, single level car parking.

Location

The rural town is located just over 130km, a two-hour drive from the Melbourne CBD. Nagambie is nestled between the pastoral and agricultural regions of Seymour and Shepperton.
